

THE MAYSVILLE LEDGER

FIFTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1896.

ONE CENT.

HERE AND THERE

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mrs. Henry Jett of Paris is the guest of Mrs. H. C. Sharp.

Colonel Charles D. Pearce and family have returned from Louisville.

Miss Sophie Duke of Nashville, Tenn., is the pleasant guest of Miss Alice Gill of West Second street.

Miss Florence McDaniel has gone to Toledo where she has a position in a large cloak establishment.

Mr. Thomas S. Andrews, Cashier Deposit Bank of Pearson, Pa. & Co. of Williamsburg, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Florence W. Frank of East Second street is spending a few days with the family of Mr. David Wood of Forest avenue.

Mrs. George W. Dye returned today to her home at Seattle after a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dye of West Second street.

Colonel H. A. Robinson is back from a trip to Mexico, during which he was hobnobbing with General Diaz, President Juarez and a lot of the lesser lights of that great country.

Colonel Joe Kindig is in Danville this week trying to buy 100 mules.

The "Baby Show" at the Ball Park this afternoon will take place at 6 o'clock. All babies one year old and under are eligible.

Miss Allene Hamilton has a flower-peace in Ray's window that has attracted marked attention, and stamps this lady as a real artist.

Robert P. Teddunter, a prominent trotting-horse breeder known all over the United States, is dying at Lexington from cancer of the stomach.

Hon. E. J. McDermott, one of the most prominent lawyers of Louisville, will take the stump for Palmer and Buckner, making his first speech at Music Hall October 10th.

The McKinley, Hobart and Pugh Club of the Fifth and Sixth Wards held a rousing meeting last night, and the address of Mr. Milton Johnson was enthusiastically received.

The speakers at the U. B. F. picnic today are Hon. W. A. Gaines of Covington, Rev. W. H. Shelbourne of Maysville and Prof. J. R. Spurgeon of this city. The speaking will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

Elder T. P. Degman of Springdale sold a yearling calf in Cincinnati last Tuesday, that weighed just 1,000 pounds. Considering that the drift on that calf must have been at least 60 pounds, this was no slouch of a bovine.

At the meeting of Wyandotte Tribe No. 3, I. O. R. M., held last evening, these officers were chosen:

Sacchar-Lee Hauke.
Propriet-Frank H. Bromley.
Senior Sagarone-W. H. Luman.
Junior Sagarone-H. W. Luman.
Trustee, Eighteen months-Thomas M. Luman.

In the Circuit Court at Frankfort Judge Cantrill sustained a demurrer to the answer in the case of the State against ex-Auditor L. C. Norman and Auditor's Agent Barker. This was a big victory for the state, which is suing for $88,000 alleged to have been illegally paid to Barker by Norman as Auditor Norman's attorney.

Mr. Charles Hanauer and Dr. Stella Hunt passed through Maysville yesterday afternoon on their tandem. They were married Wednesday evening at Cincinnati and will spend their honeymoon on their wheel, covering the following route: From Cincinnati to Lexington, thence to Louisville, to St. Louis, then to Kansas City and Denver and return. The trip will occupy about four weeks. They are both enthusiastic bicyclists.

AND DIDN'T KNOW IT!

A Maysville Man Divorced From His Wife Last Week.

Last week H. C. Hemmon of Maysville lost his wife by a divorce decree in the Hamilton County Court.

The entry relates that Henry Hemmon refused to furnish Basile Hemmon with "enough provender to keep her organic system from festering."

Yesterday County Clerk Hobson received a letter from Hemmon wanting to know about the case.

"It was not advised of Court proceedings," he says, and he pleaded for one more chance to "starten things out."

In reply Hobson sent Hemmon a certified copy of the decree.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LADDER'S WEATHER SIGNAL.

For Pure Drugs call on Henry W. Ray, successor to Theo. C. Power, next door to Postoffice. Prescriptions a specialty.

The colored people of Dover will have a political speaking at Terhune Hall Saturday night. Prof. J. H. Spurgeon of Maysville will address the meeting.

STOP THAT COLD.
Jay's Lardolope Balm, guaranteed to cure or your money refunded by Peor. No.

The Court of Appeals has affirmed the judgment of the Mason Circuit Court in the case of Glover vs. Wilson. Judge Harbeson's decisions generally stand.

The Sporting Editor of The Lexington Leader is authorized to offer the following: $1,000 to $750 that William McKinley is elected President of the United States.

Mrs. Orla Edgington, formerly of this city, died this week at Indianapolis. Her remains were brought here Wednesday morning and interred in the Maysville Cemetery.

In the make-up of the Committees of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., at Dallas, Texas, Mr. William H. Cox of this city was given a place on the Committee on Finance.

Yesterday a load of oats was brought from Lewis county to the stable of Messrs. Parker & Smoot, and with it came a three-foot blacksnake, which was killed by the stable employees amid considerable excitement.

The first Quarterly Conference for this year at Mitchell Chapel, Sixth Ward, will be held tonight. Services at 8:45 o'clock, conducted by Presiding Elder D. W. Robertson, assisted by the new Pastor, Rev. H. W. Darlington.

Messrs. L. W. Galbraith and Thomas A. Davis will discuss the monetary question at Bardia on Saturday evening, October 31. Everybody invited—Free traders, Free-silverites, Free-soups, Gold-bugs, Potatoes and Humbugs.

ATTENTION, REPUBLICANS!

LET EVERY ONE TURN OUT SATURDAY EVENING.

The members of the McKinley, Hobart and Pugh Club of the First, Second, Third and Fourth Wards will assemble at the Court-house on Saturday evening, September 25th, at 7 o'clock prompt.

Preceded by the Maysville Band they will march to the Amazon Hall, headquarters of the Fifth and Sixth Ward Club.

The two Clubs will then march through the city to the Opera house, where the Hon. Stephen A. Douglas will deliver an address.

Let there be a large turnout of the members and all who are in favor of an honest reward for honest labor.

All other Republican Clubs are cordially invited to participate in the parade.

The Free silver folk of Bardia are much excited. They are begging for some one to speak there in reply to the speech of Mr. Thomas A. Davis last Saturday night.

Well, they will not find anyone who can successfully refute the facts of history and Democratic history at that—and that was the basis of Mr. Davis's statements.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Something of Interest to the Young Men of Maysville.

"Manliness" will be the theme of the address to be given by Rev. J. D. Chapin at the Men's Rally in Association Hall Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This subject is certainly a very appropriate one for a Y. M. C. A. service, and those who go to hear its presentation by Mr. Chapin will not be disappointed. The men of the city—young and old—are cordially invited to attend and participate in the singing. The opening song service will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.
